

FINE THINGS ON WHEELS!

I have just received a car load of Studebaker Buggies.

Also a car load of Studebaker Wagons.

My stock in this line of goods is very extensive, and no man in Cherokee county sells buggies and wagons that give as good satisfaction to the purchaser as the Studebaker line.

I have a big line of Plows, Grain Drills, Etc., Etc.

We buy our goods at the lowest cash prices and in car load lots.

Our goods are the very best and the prices just right.

"Our customers say you manufacture three of the best remedies on earth," said the mercantile firm of Hans, Harris, Brim & McLain, of Dawson, Ga., in a recent letter to the Chamberlain Medicine Co. This is the universal verdict. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the finest preparation in the world for rheumatism, neuralgia, lame back, quinsy, soar throat, cuts, bruises, burns, scalds pains and swellings. A 25 cent bottle of this liniment in the house will save a great deal of suffering. Buy it at W. E. Price's drug store.

Ben Crase is building a blacksmith shop on the corner of Military and River Streets. Baxter now has nine shops. It would seem to us that this line of business is somewhat overdone.

Mr. C. B. Bush, president of the Glimmer county court, tells briefly his experience with an epidemic of bloody flux in his family. He writes under date of October 8, 1896, at Auburn, W. Va. "During the past summer we had three cases of bloody flux in our family which we cured in less than one week with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. In some instances there were twenty hemorrhages a day." This remedy never fails to cure the worst cases of bloody flux and all bowel complaints and every family should keep it at hand. For sale by W. E. Price.

DIED—On Monday, July 25, Will, little son of Mr. and Mrs. John Andrews, aged four years. Funeral services were held Tuesday and the remains interred in the Baxter cemetery.

Daniels & Hartley had four applicants for houses Thursday afternoon at one time. We need more neat comfortable houses with water and other modern improvements.

The Joplin News says: "The hay harvest is flourishing at Baxter Springs. The Memphis road hauls out big train loads daily. Most of the product comes from the Indian Territory."

A big lot of whiskey belonging to a jointist named Deye of Galena, who was convicted in Justice Weaver's court last week was poured in the streets Tuesday by Constable John Jones.

A few years ago our farmer friends rode to town in wagons. Now it is different. Tuesday afternoon there were thirty-four buggies on Military street at one time belonging to farmers.

A man named Secrist was arrested in Galena the other day for overloading his team. This makes two arrests for cruelty to animals in Galena within the week. Galena is evidently trying to reform.

We understand one of our leading citizens, not a friend of the reunion, however, is working against the association as hard as he can. This information was given us by a Galena gentleman who was here this week.

We remarked to Bob Pigg the other day that the recent rains ought to make lots of corn for him. He replied that they would help his corn some, but his corn was about made before the rain. Bob planted his corn very early.

Roy Graham of the Graham Grocery Company of Joplin had one of his legs broken in a collision at Red Fork, I. T., on Monday night of this week. Roy has many friends here who will be pained to learn of his misfortune.

DIED—At the home of her parents in Garden township, on Monday, July 25, Ethel, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Potter, aged eleven months and fifteen days. Funeral services were held Tuesday evening and the remains interred in the Lowell cemetery.

Will Price discovered some young fellows shooting craps on top of his coal house back of the drug store the other day. Slipping into the store he secured a big cannon cracker and going into the coal house touched it off. The fellows flew, thinking Schley was bombarding things.

We feel a little ashamed to admit it, yet we hadn't visited Galena since October until about the first of June. The Republican says we tried to get one of its Galena advertisers to quit that paper last winter, but not having been in Galena last winter we feel that somebody has been imposing on the Republican man.

Dr. David B. Morgan, the veterinary surgeon, will go to Galena Monday morning and remain one week. The doctor is a graduate in his line and is a great friend of the horse. He has recently published a book which every lover of the horse should have. He travels in a wagon made especially for him and it is a beauty. All of his medical and surgical appliances are carried with him and so matter what is the matter with your horse, Dr. Morgan can make him all right.

Rev. John A. Bright of Topeka was in Baxter Wednesday night and delivered a lecture under the auspices of Baxter Lodge, No. 235, I. O. O. F., at the M. E. church. Rev. Bright is grand warden of that order in Kansas. He is a very pleasant and forceful speaker and his remarks were well received and highly appreciated. On Thursday morning he visited New Camp Logan and expressed himself as thoroughly delighted with the grounds and their surroundings. He said if God Almighty ever intended to make a ground for holding old soldiers' reunions, that the new grounds are certainly the place. Rev. Bright is a regular attendant of the big reunions and will be here this year.
